Divine Croatian Coast – Exclusive Charter Journey

DOBRODOŠLI! – Welcome to Croatia!

Imagine a place far from home, where the borders are delineated by the golden shores of the sea and home is wherever the anchors drop! Dropping anchor off an uninhabited or undeveloped isle in Croatia, as the sun sets, you pop into the Adriatic Sea for a swim...as the daylight fades the only sounds of the evening are waves lapping against the hull — pure paradise! There's something magical about having a private yacht, nothing compares to the feeling of waking up to a gorgeous new view each morning, looking forward to another amazing day of sailing under bright sun and blue skies. Imagine a sailing experience in a land whose Mediterranean diet is protected by UNESCO, and whose abundant Adriatic sea provides some of the finest seafood out there, local and fresh, which will take you back to a different era, returning you home. Enjoy these simple pleasures on the back on your boat as you explore the innumerable islands or discover some of the hidden culinary gems in tiny bays all over the Adriatic!

With its 5,800 km of coastline, 4,000 km of which belong to islands, cliffs and reefs, the Adriatic coast of Croatia is the most indented one on the Mediterranean. There are over 1,000 islands and only 50 of them are populated, while each island and even each place on the same island is diverse, the world for itself. Picturesque little villages, rich in history and Mediterranean charm, hidden bays, and beaches, accessible only by sea - all of this makes for superb sailing holidays! It's a true PARADISE for sea lovers! No wonder that Croatia is the world's top sailing destination – it's a 'home' to 40% of world's charter fleet!

Treat yourself to an unparalleled journey with Croatia luxury mini cruise! Day 1 – May 24, 2025 – Split

Welcome cocktail / Welcome dinner

Welcome to Split!

Enjoy eight unforgettable days cruising on the southern Adriatic Sea from one island to another with the small luxury ship cruiser. Relax and let the captain, the crew, and our tour manager, take care of you. Mornings you can relax on spacious decks and sunbathe or refresh yourself in the Adriatic Sea. Afternoons and evenings are carefully planned for you to explore Croatia's finest destinations with local experts.

The story of Split is already 17 centuries old, dating to the time the Roman Emperor Diocletian decided to build his Palace right on the peninsula near the great Roman city Salona, where he wanted to spend the last years of his life. During these 1700 years the Palace slowly turned into a city, which to this day lures with its rich tradition, glorious history and beauty of its natural and cultural heritage.

There's no doubt Diocletian's Palace is the top must-see attraction in Croatia's second biggest city – Split. This UNESCO protected World Heritage Site is actually the heart of the whole city – almost two thousand years old, the enormous palace exists today as a "living monument" – meaning it's dotted with quaint shops, galleries, cafes, restaurants and people actually live and work within its old walls. And that's what makes it really special – it's an ancient Roman palace absolutely integrated into the everyday life and doings of Split and its people.

Upon arrival at the airport, you will be greeted by driver, and they will get you settled aboard your transfer and you'll be on your way to the Split harbor. Once you reach the harbor, you will be able to check-in. Cabins will be ready for you from 2 p.m. However, if arriving early, you'll be able to safely deposit your luggage aboard the ship. After settling in, join our local guide for a tour of the Split old town to get acquainted with the emperor Diocletian Palace and learn about the rich heritage of Split's millennial history. In the evening, we will serve the Welcome Dinner aboard the ship and your cruise manager will introduce you to the entire crew. In the evening, we will serve the Welcome Dinner aboard the ship and your cruise manager will introduce you to the entire crew.

Overnight in Split

Day 2 – May 25, 2025 – Split – Trogir – Šolta Island

Breakfast | Lunch

After breakfast, we set sail to the old Dalmatian town Trogir. Trogir is sometimes referred to as "miniature Venice" or a "mini Dubrovnik" because of its ancient walls, or a "floating museum town" – as it has a masterful architecture including some stunning Venetian palaces. After disembarking in Trogir we enjoy a private walking tour followed by some free time. Our next sailing destination is island Šolta. Of course, en route, we'll have a swim stop and lunch on board!

Šolta offers an unspoiled paradise, an island that's been spared from much development despite being just a short boat ride from Split. Visitors will find sheltered coves and tranquil beaches for sunbathing and swimming in a crystal-clear turquoise sea. Rich history can be explored too, including a prehistoric fortress, churches, the ancient ruins of sarcophagi, and even the remains of a fish market in Piskeri Bay that belonged to Roman emperor Diocletian. The island produces some fantastic products too, including honey, wine, and olive oil. Visitors can get a glimpse of traditional life by visiting an olive mill for a tour to discover more about Šolta's olive-oil making tradition, while a family-run farm offers the chance to learn how to make honey.

Maslinica Bay is in the far west of the island of Šolta, hidden by islets that give it a special charm. The westernmost is the largest island, Stipanska, where the remains of a Benedictine monastery and an early Christian Basilica from the 5th century can still be seen. Traditionally an old fishing village, Maslinica is also known for the Martinis Marchi castle on the south side of the bay, built by the Alberti family in 1708, which has been renovated as a modern hotel with a luxury marina and a mooring for 50 boats. The old part of the town, in the interior of the bay, is adorned with stone houses, and along the waterfront, there are excellent restaurants that always offer fresh fish and traditional specialties. Enjoy a late free afternoon and evening at leisure on this charming island.

Overnight in Šolta

Day 3 – May 26, 2025 – Šolta Island – Hvar Island

Breakfast | Lunch

Breakfast on board before sailing towards Hvar Island, with a swim stop on the Paklini Islands (weather permit) and lunch served on board. After the swim stop, we continue our way towards the town of Hvar on the island of Hvar, where we arrive in the early hours of the afternoon.

Upon arrival we'll enjoy the private walking tour! Hvar is one of the most sought-after destinations, attracting the rich and famous, something that's obvious when you see its harbor in the summer, filled with mega yachts. Everyone comes for its beautiful beaches as well as its world-class dining and nightlife scene, but this sunny island has, even more, to offer for travelers of all types. Hvar Town has a historic center with impressive landmarks like Spanjola Fortress which offers a panoramic view over the town, harbor, the sea, and nearby islands from the top. Later in the afternoon you will have some free time to enjoy Hvar city at your own pace and time for dinner on your own. Your cruise manager will be on hand to assist with information about local sights and will have some suggestions for nice dinner spots.

Overnight Hvar Island

Day 4 – May 27, 2025 – Hvar – Korčula Island

Breakfast | Lunch

Breakfast on board and sailing towards the island of Korčula - one of the greenest islands in the Adriatic Sea, with abundant vineyards and olive groves. The dense woods led the original Greek settlers to call the island Korkyra Melaina (Black Korčula). Quiet coves and small sandy beaches dot the steep southern coast while the northern shore is flatter and pebbly. We'll enjoy a swim stop (weather permit) before lunch at Island of Proizd, lunch will be served on board. In the afternoon we arrive to Korčula, it is one of the greenest islands in the Adriatic Sea, with abundant vineyards and olive groves. The dense woods led the original Greek settlers to call the island Korkyra Melaina (Black Korčula). Quiet coves and small sandy beaches dot the steep southern coast while the northern shore is flatter and pebble.

We'll enjoy a private walking tour accompanied by professional local guide. The main city of the island Korčula has the same name. Ringed by imposing defenses, this coastal citadel is dripping in history, with marble streets rich in Renaissance and Gothic architecture. Our local guide will take you on a unique tour of the old town of Korčula. You will hear many interesting stories and legends about the city and the life of Marco Polo, the most famous son of Korčula. It is still the most famous as the birthplace of Marco Polo who was probably born here in 1254, and reminders of him can be seen all around the town, including the extremely interesting Marco Polo Museum which is something you definitely don't want to miss when visiting this beautiful Dalmatian town. Today it's a town where you can vividly feel the Mediterranean spirit of people who live and work in this mixture of Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque architecture.

The casual approach to discovering the history and culture of Korčula will surely delight you. In the evening, we suggest you enjoy one of Korčula's many exquisite restaurants. If unsure, you can always get some good tips for dinner or points of interest from your cruise manager. If you are looking for a great & unique shopping store – Korčula is the right places, plenty of small boutique local shops and jewelry stores.

Overnight in Korčula

Day 5 – May 28, 2025 – Korčula – Pelješac peninsula

Breakfast | Light lunch Oyster & Mussels & Wine Tasting

Early in the morning, while breakfast is served, we set sail for Pelješac peninsula Trstenik. Pelješac is a peninsula in southern Croatia, in the Dubrovnik-Neretva County. It is around 70 km long and is connected with Croatian Mainland at Ston. The Pelješac Channel divides the peninsula from the island of Korčula. Scattered like breadcrumbs across the foothills of the dolomites, the hamlets, and villages of southern Pelješac evoke an ancient past. The rocks, the vegetation, the groves of pine and cypress - everywhere a sense of timelessness prevails. On the hills above the sea, abandoned villas and gardens, stone walls and columns lie crumbling in the sun. Lemon, fig and almond trees, herbs and wildflowers surround the villages gardens and fields. On our way we will stop for a swim in one of the many picturesque bays dotting the coast. Upon arrival in Trstenik, we will embark on our gastronomic adventure!

Our first stop is one of the most famous wineries - Grgich Winery - Famed for his Grgich Hills in Napa, he resorted back to his Pelješac roots in the late 1990's, opening his Croatian cellar. Here, taste the wines created by the man who sensed a familial relationship between Plavac Mali and Zinfandel, which led to discovery of their common origin from Crljenak Kaštelanski grapes! After a few glasses of wine and head to meet oysterman, taking a short boat ride to the oyster farm in the middle of the bay enjoying a traditional lunch with a glass of wine in hand - we'll be tasting this natural aphrodisiac straight from the sea. Talk about a gourmet's dream!

Before we head back to our boat, we'll visit Ston city - the town with the longest stone wall in Europe (5,5 km) and the other in the world after the Chinese Wall! The walls were reinforced with 40 towers and 5 fortresses. Originally, they were 7 km long but were partially destroyed in the 1667 earthquake. After the Dubrovnik Republic acquired the Pelješac peninsula in 1334, it required the protection of the town of Ston and started building the defense walls. This large complex was built in Dubrovnik from 1334 to 1506. At that time, it was the largest fortification-urbanist project in Europe. We return to our ship in the late afternoon and spend the night in Slano, evening at leisure. Overnight in Slano – Pelješac peninsula

Day 6 – May 29, 2025 – Pelješac peninsula – Mljet Island

Breakfast | Lunch | Captain's Dinner

Early in the morning, we depart for Mljet Island - one of the most beautiful and the most densely forested islands of the Adriatic. Isolated and untouched, the island is known for its mysticism, olive groves, vineyards, and rich forests. The island is home to the Mljet National Park, which covers nearly a third of the island and is filled with dense forests and lush vegetation. One of the park's highlights is the two saltwater lakes, Veliko Jezero and Malo Jezero, which are connected by a narrow channel. The history of Mljet dates to ancient times, with the Greek geographer Strabo mentioning it as the island of Melite.

It is also known for its beautiful beaches, such as Sapunara Beach on the southern coast, which is a popular destination for sun-seekers and swimming enthusiasts. In recent years, Mljet has become a popular destination for eco-tourism, with many visitors exploring its natural beauty and participating in outdoor activities like hiking, cycling, and kayaking.

Despite its small size, Mljet is a rich and diverse destination that has something for everyone, from history buffs and nature lovers to foodies and beachgoers. Take in the rich flora and fauna, and peacefully enjoy the pristine beauty of natural surroundings. Upon arrival in Pomena, a visit to a national park encompassing most of the island is planned. The park's highlights are the two saltwater lakes - the Little Lake and the Big Lake with its Benedictine monastery on the Isle of St. Mary. We'll wrap up the evening with special Captain's dinner – combination of good food, interesting company, fascinating stories, and good music!

Overnight in Mljet Island

Day 7 – May 30, 2025 – Mljet Island – Dubrovnik

Breakfast | Lunch | Farewell wine tasting

The last stop on our trip is Dubrovnik, a city that will welcome you with open arms, as it does for visitors from all parts of the world. Surrounded by its fabled medieval walls, Dubrovnik is widely known as the "Pearl of the Adriatic". It is a medieval city on the Croatian side of the Adriatic coastline and treasure trove of cultural, historical monuments that were created throughout its thousand-year existence. In the past, it was a City-Republic, and alongside Venice one of the most famous cultural-economic centers on the Mediterranean.

In more recent times, it has become the center of modern cultural and tourist events: a city of summer festivals – an international parade of top musical and theatrical achievements, a city of museums and galleries. These values have turned Dubrovnik into a place that offers a rich selection of various experiences and excitement, but also a complete holiday in a quiet and calming, mild Mediterranean ambience and wonderful seaside landscapes.

Upon arrival we will go on a private sightseeing tour of the UNESCO protected Old town, acquainting you with its most important monuments and hidden spots. After the walking tour, we'll have a wine & snack in famous local bar and then you'll enjoy time at leisure to explore this beautiful city further on your own. As is valid every day, your cruise manager will be on hand to offer some local knowledge and help you with restaurant suggestions for dinner or bars to enjoy a drink in the evening.

Overnight in Dubrovnik.

Day 8 – May 31, 2025 – Dubrovnik (disembarkation day)

Breakfast | Hugs & Goodbye

After breakfast, it will be time to check out and enjoy your complimentary transfer to the airport/hotel. We hope to see you soon again! You must vacate your cabin by 9 a.m. but note that if your departure transfer is later than you can 'store' your luggage onboard until it's time for your transfer.

Limits on Responsibility

Adriatic Allure acts solely as agents for the clients with respect to all transportations, hotel, and other tour arrangements. Adriatic Allure exercises all reasonable care possible to ensure the traveler's safety and satisfaction, but, neither Adriatic Allure, nor any agent or affiliate accepts any responsibility or liability for any injury, death, damage, loss, accidents, delay, or irregularity arising in connection with the services of any airplane, train, ship, automobile, motor coach, carriage, or other conveyance, or the actions of any third-party involved in carrying the traveler or in affecting these tours. Adriatic Allure, its employees, officers, directors, successors, agents, and assigns, does not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip. It purchases transportation (by aircraft, coach, train, vessel or otherwise), hotel and other lodging accommodations, restaurants, ground handling and other services from various independent suppliers. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. Vouchers or tickets issued are subject to all laws, conditions and regulations as imposed by local authorities and governmental administration in the countries visited.

Unforeseen Circumstances

Although Adriatic Allure will make every effort to adhere to the itinerary, on rare occasions it may be necessary to make an adjustment to these arrangements. Should such adjustment be necessary, a substitute will be offered when and where possible. If any unusual, unforeseeable or extraordinary circumstances beyond our control, including (but not limited to) war, riots, terrorism, fire, natural disaster, explosion, strikes, lockouts, slowdowns, prolonged shortage of energy supplies, plagues, epidemics and acts of state or governmental action prohibiting or impeding any party from performing its respective obligations under the contract (travel restrictions, quarantines, trade embargoes, closure of airports or seaports and borders) or any other event outside the control of Adriatic Allure which affects the journey arrangements, Adriatic Allure cannot accept liability for any resulting loss, damage or expense and any refund will be subject to deduction of applicable expenses. In case of force majeure and we need to cancel any travel arrangements, Adriatic Allure has the right to retain funds paid, to delay the delivery of the services or end the legal contract without legal intervention by informing of this in writing. Clients are not entitled to any damages unless this would be unacceptable according to measures of reason and fairness given the circumstances. Adriatic Allure is not responsible for any loss, accident, injury, delay, defect, omission, or irregularity which may occur, such as changes, additional expenses, and cancellations due to weather conditions, ferryboat, or other transportation schedule changes and other any changes beyond our control. Adriatic Allure must be advised during the booking process should there be any person in a traveling party who cannot travel independently or who needs any form of assistance or has any medical condition which could affect their travel, as such person must be accompanied by a companion capable of assisting this person. Areas visited will often not offer access and pathways comparable to those accommodating the disabled in your country.

Change Request Deadline

We understand that there may be a need to change a component or item of your final booking program and we will try our best to accommodate such requests (but cannot guarantee that such request can be accommodated and if accommodated that such will not increase the cost of your booking package). We request that you give us as much advance notice as possible of any additional requests or nuances or changes to your program. Prices are based on current rates of exchange, tariffs, and taxes. Adriatic Allure retains the right to increase tour prices to cover increased costs, tariffs, and taxes, and to reflect fluctuations in foreign exchange markets. Adriatic Allure retains the right to cancel or vary any itinerary and substitute components of the itineraries and arranged sightseeing due to unforeseen circumstances or circumstances beyond Adriatic Allure control. Every effort will be made to operate tours as planned, but alterations may occur after the final itinerary has been issued.

COVID-19 Acknowledgment

Travelers must provide required health documentation for travel and agree to comply with all health protocols as directed by Adriatic Allure staff during their journey. Noncompliance with these measures will result in not being able to travel or continue on the journey. Guest voluntarily assumes all risks and related expenses in the event that they or any member of their traveling party require testing or quarantine, become infected with COVID-19 or experience travel interruptions or delays.

Insurance / Cancellation Insurance

Adriatic Allure strongly recommends you buy trip cancellation/interruption insurance to protect yourself from unexpected circumstances that may cause you to cancel your trip.

Before traveling on a trip, we strongly recommend you review your personal insurance and health insurance to ensure you have coverage appropriate to meet your needs, and the needs of your family and dependents, in case of any loss of property or illness, injury or death.

Passports and Visas

For most destinations, valid passport is required. Contact the relevant consulate or embassy for the most up-to-date visa requirements. Prior to confirming your vacations plans, check your passport to ensure that it is valid for the duration of your trip. Certain countries require that your passport remains valid for at least six months beyond the date you plan to leave. You may be denied entry to a certain country if passport expires fewer than six months after the day you are scheduled to leave. Please have your passport with you on excursions crossing into surrounding countries/border crossings.

Photography During Travel

Adriatic Allure reserves the right to take photographs and video of guests during the operation of any program or part thereof and to use, re-use, publish, and republish their image, identity likeness, voice, interview, statements, video clips and sound recordings, and/or photographic portraits or pictures in which guest(s) may be included (an "Image"), for promotional purposes during the program and thereafter. By booking a program with Adriatic Allure, guests acknowledge that Adriatic Allure is the owner of the photographs and video and agree to allow their Image to be used in such photographs and videos, which may thereafter, be used by Adriatic Allure. Guests who prefer that their images not be used must (1) identify themselves to their Tour Guide at the beginning of their journey; and (2) notify their Travel Consultant by email, not later than thirty (30) days following the end of the guest's journey. In the event the guest fails to comply with both obligations, the guest shall not be exempt from this section. If such written notice is not timely provided, the guests, individually and on behalf of any minor child travelling with them, have granted unrestricted rights and permission for Adriatic Allure to use the Images.
